

Well Hall

Mary Alice Amidon

2008

for Nick

©2008 Amidon Music Publishing

Voice

We turn to this from what we were by chance
In times when fate has thrown us on the slants,

Violin

Cello

5

Trans - form - ing who we are by what we chose
Uns - ure of what to hold and what to lose,

5

5

9

Our life is giv - en mean - ing in the dance
We turn to this by what we were by chance.

9

9

13

13

13

18

Seek - ing, the mus - - ic's each mo - men - tar - y
 Be - fore, we saw each oth - er in a

18 Pizzicato

21

bal - ance the coun - ter - point's in wo - ven, mys - tic clues
 gla - nce and so Now we see by deep - er, old - er clues

21

21

25

We turn to this from what we were by chance
 As life is gi - ven mean - ing by our dance.

25

25

29

29

29 Arco

29

34

In We this breathe small to - space ge - we ther, find keep a the large time, ex - - -

34

34 Arco

37

panse; turn sin - gle, turn to - ge - ther it re - news Our hands; the mu - sic starts; who - knows what then en - nues? We

37

37

42 life to stu dy - mean ing in the dance. Our turn to this from what we were by chance;

42

42

46

46

46 life is - given mean ing in the dance